Celebrating our 102nd Annual Meeting

May 4–6, 2005
Red Lion Colonial Hotel
Helena, Montana
Greetings,

Welcome to the 102nd annual meeting of the Montana Dental Association. This is our chance to get out of the office and join together with dental professionals from around the state to gather knowledge and encourage one another. Can anyone who attended last year’s meeting in Great Falls ever forget Terry Donovan’s informative and humorous presentation or Randy Morgan’s red tennis shoes and his marshmallows? The annual meeting is your opportunity to build memories with your staff and with other dentists.

The MDA Continuing Education Committee has continued their effort to find excellent clinical speakers in Dr. Ed Swift and Dr. Michael Glick, our new JADA editor, as well as a highly regarded motivational speaker, Dr. Mark Hyman.

Green Meadow golf course will present a challenge for golfers in the Wednesday MOHF tournament and the awards reception on Thursday evening is always an inspirational event. Spouses will be treated to various activities during a tour of Helena’s unique downtown and the luncheon will be held at the elegant and historic Montana Club.

Please plan to attend and I look forward to seeing you in Helena!
—John

DR. ED SWIFT
MODERN DENTAL MATERIALS

Dr. Ed Swift will address the meeting on Thursday, May 5, on a wide range of dental materials. He received his DMD degree from the Medical University of South Carolina and master’s degree in Operative Dentistry from the University of Iowa. He is currently professor and chairman of the Department of Operative Dentistry at the University of North Carolina School of Dentistry, Chapel Hill, North Carolina. Dr. Swift is actively involved in dental materials research, particularly in the area of dentin bonding and other aspects of adhesive and esthetic dentistry. He also maintains a part-time intramural practice devoted to restorative and esthetic dentistry.

Dr. Swift says, “When we were in school, most of us found dental materials to be one of the most boring subjects we were forced to take! However, most practicing dentists have developed a great interest in this topic. Unfortunately, the development of new materials has proceeded so rapidly that many clinicians are left confused by the wealth of new products that are available in many different areas.”

His course will present the latest information available on dentin bonding systems and composite resins, particularly those intended for posterior use. Newer materials, such as self-etching adhesives, flowable composites, and micro-hybrid composites, will be included in the presentation. Two of the less glamorous—but most important—areas of dental materials will also be covered: cements and impressions. As most clinicians realize, getting these things right is important to the success of our routine indirect restorations and esthetic cases.

Finally, the presentation will provide an update and overview of tooth whitening. Although bleaching has become commonplace, new information and products are available as patient demand increases.

DR. MARK HYMAN
DRILL ’EM, FILL ’EM & THRILL ’EM

On Friday, May 6, Dr. Mark Hyman will present “Drill ’Em, Fill ’Em & Thrill ’Em,” a fast-paced, humorous course designed to help dentists and staff focus on effective handling of patients.

Mark Hyman, DDS, a native of Greensboro, received his undergraduate degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and his dental degree from the UNC School of Dentistry. Following an internship in Israel, he completed the two-year oral medicine/general practice residency at UNC Hospital in Chapel Hill. Dr. Hyman is on the surgical staff of Moses Cone Health System. He was elected president of the Guilford County Dental Society in 1991. He teaches at the Pankey Institute in Key Biscayne, Florida, is an adjunct associate professor at the UNC School of Dentistry, and has lectured at many national and international dental meetings.

Dr. Hyman will offer insight on the critical issues involved in handling new patients, making certain the time you devote to new patients is productive, and keeping your team focused and enthused—even when things go wrong.

DR. MICHAEL GLICK
BIOTERRORISM

Friday will also feature a second speaker, one familiar to MDA dentists and staff, Dr. Michael Glick, who will offer a course on bioterrorism. Dr. Glick is professor and chair Department of Diagnostic Sciences at the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey. He is the newly-appointed editor of JADA and is a diplomate of the American Board of Oral Medicine. Dr. Glick has authored numerous publications on the treatment of medically complex patients and has lectured extensively on this subject both nationally and internationally.

He states, “The tragic event of 9/11/01 propelled us into a new era of terrorism fought on our own soil. Worries about terror assaults with biologic agents quickly lead the federal government, together with both the medical and dental communities to proactively initiate educational campaigns to enable an appropriate response in case of an attack. Categories of potential agents were defined; literature was generated by professional organizations, federal agencies, and the military; and conferences were organized to gain and share information.” This seminar is designed to help dental healthcare workers understand the effects of a biologic terror attack, the professional role of dentists during a potential attack, and how to prepare for such a scenario.
